

Bite size

Tina-Marie
O'Neill

bitesize@sbpost.ie

Another top nosh award for Nash 19

Nash 19, a restaurant and food shop on Princes Street in Cork city centre, has added another accolade to its lengthy list of awards.

The eatery won last month's Just Ask Restaurant of the Month quality food award, ending a year in which owner Claire Nash became president of Cork's Business Association, claimed the Host of the Year award from Good Food Ireland, and saw her establishment make it onto Bridgestone's 100 Best Restaurants in Ireland listing.

The restaurant and shop are open from 7.30am Monday to Friday. The restaurant closes at 5pm and the shop closes at 6pm. The restaurant menu changes daily, and includes a gluten-free menu. The shop offers food to go, a selection of casseroles, pies and pastas, goodies for teatime treats, own brand condiments, and has recently added a number of new products, including organic pasta from Noodle House, Mella Fudge and multiseed spelt bread. They join the range of artisan produce supplied by Country Choice and Indian spice blends by local company Green Saffron.

Claire Nash also provides guided tours of the nearby English Market. For more information, visit www.nash19.com, or call 021-4270880.

centre

Nash 19
on Princes Street in Cork city